

SASLA

- Students Advise Students in Legal Affairs -

An innovative legal project of the Berlin Law School

Prof. Dr. Hans Paul Prümm
Berlin Law School

Hochschule für
Wirtschaft und Recht Berlin
Berlin School of Economics and Law

SASLA-Cycle - 3rd Phase

- Project-students interview students seeking legal advice
- recognize and experience daily life problems
- apply interview-techniques
- listen with empathy
- deal with difficult clients

3rd
Students (clients) seek legal advice

SASLA-Cycle - 4th Phase

- search and discuss legal advice
- present the issue of facts to other project-members (students and supervising professor)
- construct the so called decision-norm by
- search legal materials in printed and digital versions
- experience the view going back and forth from norm to facts
- realise the factors influencing the so called application of law
- feel the importance of the result of legal advice – not only of the reasons
- assure the result by discussion, self-control, and supervision
- phrase and write a legal advice for the client

4th
Project students develop for and discuss legal advice

Correspondence address:

Prof. Dr. iur. Hans Paul Prümm
HWR Berlin / Berlin Law School + Berlin Public Administration School Room 1.1042, Alt-Friedrichsfelde 60, 10315 Berlin
Mail: hanspaul.pruemm@hwr-berlin.de
Phone: +49 (030) 9021 4314

Button field
Please, place here your button if this poster is one of your favorites